Many persons predict a still greater advance in wheat.

Holiday books of all kinds, styles, and prices at J. K. Gill's.

A large number of new books have recently been added to the Portland Library.

The steamer "Shoo Fly," sunk by collision with the "Ajax," is being raised.

The last sociable of the "Busy Bee Society" at the Presbyterian Church netted $75.87.

Sugar has declined; yellow one and one-half cents, and crushed three-fourths cents per pound.

The cells in the county jail were all vacant on Saturday—the first time since Multnomah was a county.

Navigation has been closed on the Upper Columbia on account of the cold weather until further notice.

Wm. A. Daly, local editor of the Standard, has recently been quite ill at his home near East Portland.

£ Sales of holiday goods at the Dollar Store during the past week have been immense, and still the rush continues.

The "Call of the North" for the grain fleet from Astoria for the latest year of 1875-76, arrived at Queenstown on the 28th.

Persons desiring to purchase first-class instruments of music on easy terms should call upon Professor A. L. Francis, on First street.

Unapproached and unapproachable in price and variety is the holiday stock displayed at the "White House" by Lewis & Strauss.

Interest in Professor Halpruner's dancing class continues and increases, and his Saturday night soirees are of an enjoyable character.

Fishel & Roberts' new clothing emporium, corner of First and Alder streets, attracts the attention of gentlemen who like to be well dressed.

A visit from Camilla Uro, the world-renowned violinist, is mentioned as among the season's probabilities. She is now in San Francisco.

Eldridge Morse, Esq., editor of the Sunomish Star, has been adjourning for a few days in this city. We acknowledge the pleasure of a call.

J. A. Sawtelle has inaugurated a new dramatic season at New Market Theater, and theater goers may at last expect performances worthy of attention.

Rev. J. H. Acton, editor of the Advocate, delivered a lecture on Tuesday evening at the M. E. Church on "Life's Password." The lecture was interesting and well attended.

The entertainment at Hall-street M. E. Church, on Friday evening, was both a popular and financial success. Many of the exercises, musical and eloquent, were of a high order.

No danger of the holidays catching John Wilson, proprietor of the Third-street Store, unprepared to supply the wants of his patrons. First-class goods in endless variety are here found at moderate prices.

Persons who are so unfortunate as to need legal advice, are fortunate in securing the services of capable and conscientious lawyers. These they can find by calling upon Caples & Mulkey, in Odd Fellows' Temple.

His Excellency Governor Grover arrived in this city Monday en route for San Francisco via Victoria. He goes on to Washington to tell why and wherefore he attempts to defraud the people of Oregon out of a vote for Hayes.

We have received the Christmas compliments of B. L. Stone, the popular front street jeweler. His establishment, before splendid, is now magnificent in the holiday attire. This is the place to purchase enduring and elegant holiday presents.

The entertainment given by Portland Lodge, I. O. G. T., on Monday evening was a success, popular and financially. The exercises, musical and literary, were well chosen and exceedingly well rendered, the supper was excellent and abundant, and everyone seemed to enjoy the occasion.

The San Francisco and Pacific Boot and Shoe Stores have consolidated. Champlin & Hallabach, the new proprietors, are filling up with a very large and superior stock of goods of the best California and Eastern manufacture. Call and examine stock and prices at the old stand, 77 First street.

A rare chance to buy diamonds, watches, and jewelry of all kinds is offered by Mr. B. L. Stone, the popular jeweler. He intends to remove to the large store on First and Morrison streets about the 1st of January, and is closing out his present stock at panic prices, as it must be sold before the "change of base."

If you wish to make your grandmother a present, nothing is so appropriate as a pair of those elegant spectacles at John A. Beck's. If you desire to make your son a present, call and examine the large stock of watches, reliable, handsome, and cheap. If the present is for wife or daughter, select from the fine stock of everything beautiful that is here displayed. Remember the place, 109 Front street.

Among the prominent men called to Washington to testify in the Wells-Crokin case are Hon. S. F. Chadwick, Secretary of State, Hon. O. N. Denney, Collector of Internal Revenue, Dr. J. W. Watts, "which wuz postmaster," and Hon. Ben Simpson, Surveyor General. These gentlemen will enjoy their free ride across the Continent, participate in the festivities of the Capital for a season, witness the inauguration of Hayes, and return to this State with hearts swelling with gratitude to Governor Grover for privileges enjoyed.

Business must be lively at Prentice's Music Emporium, if we may judge by the great number of people who daily visit that popular establishment. Mr. Prentice has just received per steamer "Ajax" another lot of those beautiful music folios and card receivers. If you wish to look at them, you must call very soon, as he informs us that he has hardly been able to supply the demand for the goods. Also another large invoice of brackets, making the fourth for this season. Either Mr. P. is becoming very popular or his goods very cheap. He is always to be found at Sherman & Hyde's old stand, 123 First street.

The copartnership existing between Joe. Oppenheimer and Henry Ackerman, better known as Ackerman's Dollar Store, will be dissolved January 1, 1877. It is imperatively necessary that our stock be disposed of before that time. It being a very large and complete one, comprising in the main elegant holiday presents, crockery, glass and fine plated ware, it will be readily seen that great sacrifices must be made to dispose of it all within the time set. The attention of the public, and especially of dealers throughout the State, is called to the above.

A Case of Thirty Years' Standing.
EAST AUBURN, N. Y., May 22, 1876.
Messrs SETH W. FOWLE & SONS:
Gentlemen—I was troubled with Dyspepsia for thirty years, and tried several medicines advertised for the cure of this distressing complaint without deriving any benefit from them. About a year ago I commenced taking the PERUVIAN STREP, and after using altogether twelve bottles, I find myself entirely cured. I consider my case one of the worst I ever heard of, and I take great pleasure in recommending the PERUVIAN STREP to all Dyspeptics, believing that it will be sure to cure them.

Yours respectfully,
J. T. BOWEN.
